

ALEXANDRIA.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 1, 1866.

Congress commenced its session in Decem ber; it is now May. In old times, we believe, Congress, at the long session, used to adjourn about the period of corn-planting. How many months more the legislative halls will now be kept open, no one can say-some think-unless the cholera comes and causes a stampede-until July or August next. The prospect is not a very agreeable one to those who want to see peace and quiet restored to the country-for it seems as long as Congress sits, there is continual agitation and fear of mischief. It is said in the days of James the 1st and Elizabeth when the English Commons were not in a good humor with these monarchs, they contrived three methods of running the time to wastenihil agendo, or aliud agendo, or male agendo doing nothing, doing something else, or doing evilly. The last of these would seem to be the expedient in our day, and in our Congress .-And a most unfortunate one it is, for a land so lately "torn with civil strife," and now needing, above everything else, repose. Why not let passion, and prejudice, and ill feeling subside as much as possible, instead of keeping up constant irritation? If reason, good sense, and correct feeling prevailed, there would be no difference of opinion about this.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Howe, in the course of some explanations, said :- "He had understood that the Postmaster General had said that no man should eat the bread and butter of the President who did not support his policy. He (Mr. H.) had been forced to come to the conclusion that though the same party elected him and his colleague, the President did not recognize him as belonging to the same party as his colleague. As to these offices being bread and butter, he (Mr. H.) acknowledged no such idea; and if they were bread and butter, they were not the President's bread and butter, and the people of the United States would tolerate no one man asssuming to control them for his own private purposes, or endeavoring by them to dragoon people into support of his views."

"This is all about," it will be seen, "the spoils, the spoils-and all about the spoils!"

The New York Times, a Republican journal, speaks thus of the proposed Reconstruction scheme :- "As a plan of pacification and reconstruction, the whole thing is werse than a burlesque. It might be styled a farce, were the country not in the midst of a very serious drama. Its proper designation would be, 'A plan to prolong indefinitely the exclusion of the South from Congress by imposing conditions to which the Southern people never will submit.""

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says :- "The plan means simply that the republican party intend to hold their power in Congress, not only for this but for the next Congress, and intend also to have the next

As the people of the Southern States have now no voice in Congress, through either Senators or Representatives, they must, in the settlement of the great question of Restoration, rely upon such Conservative constitution-supporting friends, as they have in the Northern, Western and Middle States, and upon the President for justice and defence a against the rad-

The Richmond Enquirer will hereafter be conducted by R. M. Smith, esq., assisted by his son. This old established journal will, no doubt, prove highly successful, with all the prestige of its former fame, and the ability and industry now brought to its present manage-

It is stated that President Johnson and family have engaged rooms for a portion of the season at the Continental Hotel, Long Branch, New Jersey.

The Fenian movements and the Fenian excitements seem to be all subsiding. There appears to have been a great fuss amounting to ALEXANDRIA. - Persons who regard not law, right nor reason, are talking about rescinding the act of Congress by which the city of Alexandria was separated from the District of Columbia and retroceded to the State of Virginia. Should the iniquity be perpetrated, it may occur to the Legislature of Virginia to rescind the act by which her portion of the District was originally ceded to the General Government. -If legislative action is to be undone, it is as competent for Virginia to undo her acts as it is for the Congress of the United States. And when the State gets about this sort of work, she will hardly overlook the act by which a certain body, assuming to exercise legislative powers, assented to the division of the State and the erection of another State within her borders. Let Senator Wade go ahead, then, and establish, if he can, the right of recession in respect to legislation of this character. It will be a valuable precedent for us.

How the people of Alexandria that seat of true Virginianism-relish the thought of being torn again from the embrace of the old Commonwealth may be seen from the natural indignation with which our even-tempered friend of the Gazette expresses himself.—Rich. Whig.

Speaking of the radical scheme of re-annexing Alexandria county, Va., to the District of Columbia, the New York News suggests that it would be a capital idea to extend the boundaries of the District of Columbia so as to include the States lately in insurrection. "This would be a concise, neat, simple, and cheap wherein the reconstruction question seems to be hopelessly entangled, and would doubtless secure the support of all moderate and reasonable men."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

To show the very age and body of the Times.'

The cholera is said to be fast abating at the New York quarantine. No deaths have taken place nor additional cases received on board the hospital ship Falcon since Friday last, and all on board are reported to be in a fair way of recovery. The steamer Erin, from Liverpool. with 1,180 passengers arrived at New York on Sunday. The Erin reports four deaths on the passage-the causes not mentioned. She belongs to the same line as the England and Vir-

Mr. Thomas Cook, "Excursion and Tourist Manager," advertised in London, towards the the close of February, a monster excursion to America, which, if the party was made up, was to have left Liverpool about a week ago. The tour, as proposed, was to comprise a visit to Western Canada, Niagara Falls, the Lake cities and the Northwestern States as far as St. Louis, returning by way of Cincinnnati, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New Yark,

A letter dated Wietz, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, in Germany, April 5th, says:-"The greatest alarm prevails throughout the district, owing to the dreadful ravages made by cholera at Diekirch and the surrounding villages. Between the evening of the 1st and the morning of the 3d the deaths amounted to a hundred out of a population of only two thousand souls. All the means hitherto employed to arrest the progress of the epidemic have been in vain."

A letter from Paris says :- "Crinoline, for which the manufacturers of the article have been long doing desperate battle, is decidely doomed. At Lady Cowley's last ball all the most fashionable people, including her daughter, Lady Royston, appeared without it, and the like phenomenon was observed at the highly pratronized British Charity Ball at the Grand Hotel.

The burglars who were engaged in the robbery of the Harrison National Bank, of Cadiz, Ohio, were over taken about two miles from La Grange, Ohio, yesterday. A sharp encounter took place, in which one of the burglars was wounded and three captured. One succeeded in making his escape, but is closely pursued .-The amount of money recovered will probably exceede $150,000.

Gen. Canby was before the U. S. Circuit Court at New Orleans, on Saturday last, for contempt in preventing the execution of a writ of sequestration obtained by the U.S. Treasurer against five hundred bales of cotton. No decision was made in the case. Judge Darrell said he might as well close the court if its writs were disregarded.

Judge Fowle, of Raleigh, N. C., issued an attachment on Saturday last, for the arrest of Gen. Ruger for refusing to recognize the writ of habeas corpus, issued in fayour of Major Gee, now on trial there before a military commission. Gen. Ruger refused to be arrested, and no further action will be taken until the matter is laid before the President.

Major Hastings, of Alabama, whose first expedition for Brazil proved a failure by the wreck of his vessel in the Gulf of Mexico, has just been compelled to return to Mobile after a second start by small-pox breaking out among his passengers.

Blind Tom is giving his wonderful entertainments at New York. A few nights ago he recited from memory a speech of the late Stephen A. Douglas, delivered in his hearing at Lynchburg in 1860. This African boy is so great a wonder that crowds flock to hear him. A new flood is coming down from all the Louisiana rivers, and the whole of southwestem Louisiana will be overflowed. No progress has been made in closing the crevasses. The loss of property and crops will be immense.

Fannin county, Northern Georgia, has been the scene of so many disturbances recently, that Governor Jenkins has deemed it necessary to call upon General Thomas to send troops there to keep the peace.

A New York company has undertaken the work of introducing the electric telegraph into China, and Dr. Macgowan has been appointed to proceed forthwith to connect Pekin with Canton.

Dr. Hover, of New Orleans says the cholera never visits warm latitudes in summer, but the cold, damp weather of the fall and early spring produces it, and that it dies out in summer. Gov. Peirpoint is "catching it," on all sides. He certainly, says the Richmond Dispatch, was a bigger man when he first came to Richmond," than he is ever likely to be again. The steamer Ephosus, sailed on the 7th ultimo, from Liverpool for Norfolk via Boston, but at last advices nothing had been heard

The President has recently appointed, as his private and confidential Secretary, the Hon. Edward Cooper, one of the members of Congress elect from Tennessee. General Canby, in New Orleans, has ordered a cholera quarantine of all New York shipping. Colonel R. V. Montague, collector of the port of Molile, died on Monday, from paralysis. In Alabama, houses, trees, and fences were leveled by the storm on Sunday night.

REPORTED RIOT IN FALMOUTH, VA.-A special dispatch to the Richmond Examiner, under date of April 29, says :- "A terrible riot occurred here to-day between the negroes and whites, in which fifteen negroes were killed outright, and a number wounded. One white man is reported mortally wounded, and others slightly. The affair has created the most in-

We see no mention of this reported riot in any other paper and hear nothing of it, but what is contained in the above. It will be seen the dispatch is dated last Sunday, and this is Tuesday. Reports of riets in Alexandria, which were entirely false, were circulated in

Mr. Clark, of Philadelphia, has purchased the mineral right of the farm of Mr. Samuel Wilson, residing about four miles below Rockville, Montgomery co., Md., on the Georgetown pike, and has placed, under the susuperintendence of Captain Gwinn, of California, a force of men to commence mining operations. The surface rock, which Mr. Gwinn has method of getting rid of all the complications crushed, yields $40 per ton, and, from present indications, there appears to be an abundance of the precious metal.

LETTER FROM LOUDOUN COUNTY.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] LEESBURG, April 28, 1866.—The Circuit G. I. THOMAS, Court of this county, Judge H. W. Thomas presiding with great acceptance, has been in session since last Monday, and a good deal of chancery and criminal business has been trans-

Charles Curry and W. H. Hurdy, both members of Mcan's Federal command, and the latter, a deserter from Company C, 17th Va. Infantry, U. S. A., were tried for the robbery of John P. Gregg, in December last. Gregg lost his money and his watch, but there being no positive proof that they took them, they were only convicted of an aggravated assault, and John Carroll, tried for horse stealing, but the jury could not agree. He is from Mary-

W. O. Thomas, of Fauquier, late color bearer of the Sth Va. (Confederate) regiment, was also tried for horse stealing. The horse was found in his possession, under extremely suspicious circumstances, but there being no proof of the theft, he was acquitted. Gen. Hunton and J. R. Tucker defended him ably.

The latter gentleman is one of the best advocates that has ever practiced in this part of Virginia; his pleasing address, speaking gestures and beautiful diction carrying the sympathies of the jury with him, and sometimes warping their judgment. They have the same effect on a person that the tears of a beautiful woman have; there is no resisting their cloquent appeal.

Elizabeth Adams, from Waterford, an old colored woman of past respectable character, vastried for stealing bacon, but a new trial was next morning given by the judge, and she was bailed in the sum of $200.

Jim and Peter (both negroes) were tried for stealing the same bacon, and the former found guilty, and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary; the latter was acquitted, as were two other negroes, in some way connected with the

James Thornley and Bob Fletcher, from the neighborhood of Upperville, were tried separately for stealing bacon. James was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary, and Bob, much the more guilty, as was generally supposed, was sent there for three years. These were both negroes,

Bob Russell, arrested for petty larceny for the sixth time since last April, two other negroes for stealing; a Mrs. Fluke, from the German settlement for stealing gold and silver coin, bank notes and jewelry, and John Carroll, for horse stealing, are now the occupants of our jail.

Fifteen marriage licenses were issued in March, four being for negroes; and eight were ssued in April, three being for negroes. The prrties ages ranged from 45 down to 22 in the males, and from 18 up to 33 for the females.

Col. E. V. White and S. C. Luckett are candidates for the Sheriffalty, the former greatly the favorite. His quiet, peaceful demeanor since General Lee's surrender, and his estimable qualities as a man have gained him many warm friends. Yours, ALIQUIS.

Southern Relief Fair. - At a meeting of the Executive Committee of Ladies, held in Baltimore on the 26th instant, the sum of $108 000 was appropriated to the States.

A committee of three ladies was appointed to superintend the distribution for each State -a list of which will be published in a few days. In addition to the appropriation above, about $50,000 will remain as reserved fund in the hands of the Executive Committee to increase allotment to such State as may require t, and to meet special cases. The result of the Fair has been so far developed as to make it certain that its aggregate proceeds will not be less than one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. The entire expenses will not exceed three thousand dollars.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.—The scheme of the joint "reconstruction" committee, already published, was reported in both houses yesterday, and made the order of the day for the 5th instant. The Senate passed a bill to erect a bridge across the Mississippi at Quincy, Illinois, and to make it a postal route. The postoffice appropriation bill was then taken up and discussed until the hour of adjournment.

In the House a bill was introduced to construct a continuous line of railroad between the city of Washington and the Northwest .-Another bill was also introduced to aid in the construction of a railroad from Pittsburg to Cleveland. The bill to continue certain harbor improvements was called up and passed .-Among the appropriations contained in this bill is one of $5,200 for the Patapsco river, and another of $26,400 for improving the channel of the Susquehanna river near Havre-de-Grace. A bill was introduced, and referred. to provide for the payment of horses turned over to the government by loyal owners during the war, and also a bill appropriating about $11,000,000 for the support of the Freedmen's

LATER FROM EUROPE. - The steamer Hibernia arrived off Farther Point yesterday with advices from Europe to the 19th inst. The tense excitement and dread. The people are dreadfully alarmed. Order has been partially Count Bismarck, it is said, has several times LIVERY AND SALE STABLE. tendered his resignation, but on each occasion had failed to obtain the sanction of the King to his withdrawal. It was thought probable, however, that some modification of the Prussian Cabinet would take place. Austria and Prus sia are explaining their positions. There were great rejoicings at St. Petersburg on account of the Czar's escape from assassination. The man who attempted to take the life of the Czar is a Russian, a land owner of small means, who considered himself injured by the emanci pation of his serfs. He discharged a pistol at the Czar within a few feet of the person of the latter, and the shot would probably have taken effect if a peasant had not turned aside the assassin's arm. The peasant has been ennobled.
